

Siena Symposium for Women, Family and Culture

Evening of Reflection Blessed John Paul II On Women

University of St. Thomas

August 15, 2013: The Feast of Our Lady's Assumption

6:00-7:00 pm Mass

Chapel of St. Mary at St. Paul Seminary School of Divinity

7:00-7:30 Registration & Cookie Reception Brady Education Center "BEC"

7:30-9:00: Panel Discussion Baumgaertner Auditorium BEC

Free Parking at the Anderson Parking Ramp on Grand and Cretin and in lots with red or yellow signs

Jeanne Buckeye, Ph.D. Moderator

Opus College of Business, Department of Ethics and Business Law

Deborah Savage, Ph.D. The Significance of Blessed John Paul II's Letter "On the Dignity and Vocation of Women"

St. Paul Seminary School of Divinity

R. Mary Lemmons, Ph.D. Why Woman? Why Man? Why Hetrosexuality? Why Nature?

College of Arts and Sciences, Philosophy Department

Gina Bauer, M.A. The Spirituality of Women: From Eve to Mary

Church of St. Joseph, Director of Senior Youth Ministry

*The Siena Symposium for Women, Families, and Culture is inspired by Blessed John Paul II to use education and scholarship to enable women to exercise their gifts for protecting human dignity and remaining sensitive to the person "in every circumstance: because," says Blessed John Paul II, "they are human!---and because 'the greatest of these is love" (On the Dignity and Vocation of Women).*