

An Evening of Reflection
Blessed John Paul II
On The Mission of Women

August 15, 2013: The Feast of Our Lady's Assumption 25th Anniversary of *On the Dignity and Vocation of Women

6:00-7:00 Mass, Celebrant Bishop Lee Piche

St. Mary's Chapel, St. Paul Seminary School of Divinity, University of St. Thomas

7:00-7:30 Registration & Refreshments

Brady Education Center "BEC"

7:30-9:00: Panel Discussion

Baumgaertner Auditorium (BEC 120)

Free Parking at the Anderson Parking Facility on Grand and Cretin and in lots with red or yellow signs

Jeanne Buckeye, Ph.D. Moderator

Opus College of Business, Department of Ethics and Business Law

Deborah Savage, Ph.D. *The Significance of Blessed John Paul II's Letter
"On the Dignity and Vocation of Women"

St. Paul Seminary School of Divinity

R. Mary Lemmons, Ph.D. Why Woman? Why Nature? Why the Mission?

College of Arts and Sciences, Philosophy Department

Gina Bauer, M.A. The Spirituality of Women: From Eve to Mary

National Speaker; Retreat Specialist; N.E.T. Workshop Leader;

Director of Senior Youth Ministry at St. Joseph's Church, West St. Paul

*The Siena Symposium for Women, Families, and Culture is inspired by Blessed John Paul II to use education and scholarship to empower women to exercise their gifts for protecting human dignity and promoting sensitivity to the person "in every circumstance: because," says Blessed John Paul II, "they are human!---and because 'the greatest of these is love' (On the Dignity and Vocation of Women).*