

CALL FOR PAPERS

Mulieris Dignitatem and the Church's Social Vision:
The Feminine Genius in the Pursuit of the Common Good

Oct. 22-23, 2008

Keynote address by Dr. Pia Francesca de Solenni

What is the feminine genius and how can its existence be verified? What are its philosophical or theological foundations? What is its relationship to the complementarity of men and women? What is the role of the feminine genius in pursuing the common good? What are the policy implications of leveraging the feminine genius?

Proposals are due June 30 to Dr. Deborah Savage at pdsavage@stthomas.edu

For more information about the conference visit www.stthomas.edu/cathstudies/siena

Organized by The Siena Symposium for Personalist Feminism

UNIVERSITY of ST. THOMAS
MINNESOTA

Co-sponsored by the Murphy Institute for Law and Public Policy, Center for Catholic Studies and The Saint Paul Seminary School of Divinity